There are no flies or mosquitoes, so no wire screenes are needed and one can enjoy out of door life without any of the usual disagreable features.

Delightful people are to be met from every part of the south. Atlanta at present has the largest contingent, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Inman, Mrs. E. Inman, Mrs. Roby Robinson and charming daughters, one of whom although just entering her teens promises to be another Mary Johnstone, in the versatility and number of her liter ary articles.

Under the new management the hotel has had $100,000 spent on improvements. The table and service are excellent, and Mr. C. A. Wood, the genial host leaves nothing undone for the comfort and pleasure of the guests.

A picture of Toxaway would be incomplete without mention of the resident physician, Dr. Dounce, of New York city. Whether one is ill or only dull the doctor is an antidote, a student, an athlete, a most agreeable companion and above all a conscientious and successful physician. He is a real asset to Toxaway. If you think the picture overdrawn, come and see! I rest my reputation for veracity on the verdict.
